

ALZHEIMER'S RESOURCE SHEET

Alzheimer's Association

The Alzheimer's Association provides support for people affected by Alzheimer's disease and other dementias. It functions on global, national, and local levels to increase care. The 24/7 helpline provides reliable information and support to all those who need assistance.

<http://www.alz.org> 1-800-272-3900

Alzheimer's Foundation of America

The Alzheimer's Foundation of America brings together thousands of organizations across the United States to meet the educational, social, emotional, and practical needs of individuals with Alzheimer's disease, and their caregivers and families.

<http://www.alzfdn.org> 1-866-232-8484

Caregiver Action Network

The Caregiver Action Network is dedicated to improving the quality of life for more than 90 million Americans who care for loved ones with Alzheimer's disease and similar conditions. The Caregiver Action Network is a nonprofit organization that provides a range of resources to caregivers and their families at no cost.

<http://www.caregiveraction.org> 1-202-454-3970

Eldercare Locator

The Eldercare Locator is a division of the U.S. Administration on Aging that helps older adults and their families and caregivers find local trustworthy support resources. The Eldercare Locator strives to help people live independently and safely in their homes and communities.

<http://www.eldercare.gov> 1-800-677-1116

Family Care Navigator

The Family Care Navigator, provided by the Family Caregiver Alliance, is an interactive map that helps family caregivers identify local public, nonprofit, and private programs that can help provide services for their loved one.

<http://www.caregiver.org/family-care-navigator> 1-800-445-8106

Medicare.gov: Nursing Home Compare

The Medicare.gov Nursing Home Compare provides detailed information about every Medicare and Medicaid-certified nursing home in the country. This system can help friends and family evaluate and compare different nursing homes. <https://www.medicare.gov/nursinghomecompare/search.html>

National Adult Day Services Association

The National Adult Day Services Association is dedicated to advancing the recognition and use of adult day services. These services provide professional care and supervision for older adults, adults living with dementia, or adults living with disabilities. These programs focus on individualized therapeutic, social, and health services during the day. <http://www.nadsa.org> 1-877-745-1440

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Caregiver Support Services

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs provides support for veterans and their families who are battling Alzheimer's and related diseases. All of the programs provided are available in and out of your home and can help you provide the best care for your veteran.

<http://www.caregiver.va.gov> 1-855-260-3274

ARCH National Respite Network

The ARCH National Respite Network is a service for parents, family caregivers, and professionals that helps find local respite services in their area that match the specific needs they are looking for.

<http://www.archrespite.org/respitelocator>